GATHERING FOR WORSHIP

Call to Worship (From Psalm 78)

Leader: Tell the coming generation of the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders he has done.

All: The LORD established a testimony which he commanded our fathers to teach to their children that the next generation might know them, even the children yet to be born.

Leader: Arise and tell them to the children so that they should set their hope in God, and not forget his works, but keep his commandments.

All: So that they should not be like their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation.

Leader: A generation whose heart was not steadfast, whose spirit was not faithful to God.

All: We will not hide them from the children but will tell the next generation of the glorious deeds of the LORD and the wonders he has done.

Corporate Confession

Unison

Merciful Father in Heaven, I have misused my eyes to look for sin. I have misused my ears to hear things that grieve You. I have misused my mouth for unholy speech and sinful silence. I have misused my hands to work against Your will. I have misused my feet to avoid going where You've called me. I have misused my mind to shelter sin.

Most of all, I have misused my heart by withholding it from You. In Jesus' name,
Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Isaiah 53:5-6

But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned—every one—to his own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Missionary Spotlight

Dan & Rebecca Gregoire, Slovakia

Dan and Rebecca are involved in teaching people how to live with Christ at the center of their lives, especially focusing on young people, the Roma population and marriage relationships. They seek to live missional lives, being a bridge to bring Slovaks into the community of believers to hear the gospel and see it in practice. Their work in preparing pre-school Roma children for school has made a big difference in that community.

Update:

This year we decided to have English Camp at our church, which turned out perfect. When the parents came on Friday to see their children perform their songs, dances, and plays we had a wonderful opportunity to share who we are and what we believe as a church. The parents lingered for conversation, hamburgers, and to share their thanks, and praise of our camp. Many showed interest in attending "Christianity Explored" in the fall. Join us in thanking God for a great week of developing relationships and sharing the Gospel.

Dan is learning how to live with and manage Crohn's. He has recently experienced more pain and times of low energy. The doctor thinks that after 3 more injections, he will start to feel more improvement, or it will be time to try a different medication. Meanwhile, Dan strives to eat smaller, more frequent meals, following a strict diet. We appreciate your prayers for his strength and comfort, especially for next weekend when we celebrate the marriage of our daughter, Isabel, to Levi Tucker at Cloudland Canyon State Park on August 10th.

We will also be moving Eliza into her dorm at the University of North Georgia, Dahlonega, the Friday before the wedding. She starts her first day of classes on the Monday after the wedding. Lots of logistics!
